

COSC as Parent Stakeholder

- Recent decision to have the Council of School Councils (COSC) serve as an official CBE parent stakeholder - letters at tables.
- Board plans to make a decision about what this would look like in December.
- Input gathered today will inform that decision-making.
- Update will be provided at Nov. 27 COSC meeting.

COSC as Parent Stakeholder

- COSC plays an important role at the CBE. That role is growing and expanding.
- There are different ways COSC could be involved as a stakeholder.
- COSC members who participate in this way would be a voice for all CBE school councils, not just their individual schools.

COSC as Parent Stakeholder

- Some of the ways parent stakeholders have been involved in the past:
 - Participating on CBE committees such as remuneration or transportation committee.
 - Providing input to government when requested.
 - Attending public Board meetings.
 - Providing input to CBE on initiatives that affect parents, such as fees review.

COSC as Parent Stakeholder

- Possible ways to determine participation:
 - Volunteers
 - By invitation
 - By election

Parent Stakeholder Discussion Questions

- What are your thoughts on the possible ways COSC could participate as an official parent stakeholder?
- Do you have any specific concerns or questions?
- Do you have any suggestions for us to consider?