I may have misunderstood the length of the workshop. It was longer than I had planned so I ended up having to leave early. (School council purpose one)

I realized I've attended that ASCA presentation before... and it was presented by a more organized person, so this was less helpful this time.

The workshop was literally listening to the speaker read the presentation/slide show. I could have done that on my own. Not engaging at all

This was the first COSC meeting I've attended, and I found it very informative and educational. The additional ASCA workshops were great too (although I wished I could attend both). Thank you.

The info was overwhelming and a checklist for newly starting out members would be very helpful for them!
