Suggestions for Language Learning at Home

Ongoing language learning can be a joyful part of the week. Here are a few creative suggestions that can be used with a variety of e-books, videos, animations, etc. Each activity invites students to use the target language in a creative, expressive way.

Summary Poem Activity

- List 10 key words from an assigned text/short animation in German.
- Do a free verse poem in German with the words you highlighted.

Advertisement

- Think about an item or product in your house that you found unexpectedly useful. Create an advertisement in German for that product, with visuals and text, pointing out its benefits.
- Chose the media: Poster (collage or digital) / Video / Audio file

Letter

- Listen to an audiobook. In the German, explain the key theme in a letter to your best friend.

Typography Design for Vocabulary

- Listen to an e-book or watch a video in German. Choose 3 new words you learned today that you would like to remember.
- Design and transform each word as a whole in order to visually show its meaning.

Sticky Notes Annotation for Reading Comprehension

- Use sticky notes to briefly describe key passages of German book/magazine that are notable or that you have questions about. Note: The “notes” don’t have to be sticky ... you can cut your own small squares of paper (and in any colour you want)!
- You can take a photo of your notes or type what you wrote and share with your teacher.

Microblogging week

- In German, tell one positive fact of the day or something you are grateful for, in under 280 characters.
- Write one “tweet” per day for a whole week.

Podcast

- Play the part of a content expert and tell us in German about the best ways to communicate with friends during physical distancing times.

Vlog

- “One Day in the Life of a Student Learning”
- In German, tell us about your new routines throughout the day.

Travelling Toys | Inspiration for creative writing in the target language

- Choose a little toy or object and make it travel through your house, taking photographs or sketching along the way.
- Take 10 random photos of the toy/object around your house, select 5 and then organize them in a sequence of your choice to create your story, and then write it in German.
