

All Boys Program

Is the All Boys Program the Right Choice for My Child?

A successful student demonstrates:

- a desire to learn in a single gender setting
- a willingness to be actively engaged in a learning environment that focuses on the academic, physical, emotional and social needs of boys
- a willingness to take risks in their learning
- a desire to understand themselves as a learner

Characteristics of the All Boys Program

- Builds on boys' strengths to create an optimistic culture and an encouraging learning environment where boys will understand themselves as learners
- Fostering self-confidence as boys understand how to be a resilient learner and critical thinker
- Daily Physical Education program, instructed by a K-6 Physical Education specialist
- Development of leadership characteristics through authentic contribution to the school community
- The natural curiosity of the male learner is leveraged through intentional task design
- Enriching their learning and the curriculum through the use of residencies, exploration of community resources and off campus experiences that make the connections authentic for boys
- A school community that recognizes the necessity for classroom environments that support male learners (movement breaks, tall desks, alternative seating, assistive tools)
- Alberta Programs of Study through an instructional approach that best meets the learning needs of boys
- Infusion of technology to support the demonstration of learning
