Join us Wednesday, April 11 for a stimulating day of discussion that builds on CCVO's pivotal research on adaptive capacity in the nonprofit sector. Connections Conference 2018 brings together professionals from Alberta's nonprofit, government, and business sectors to continue the conversation and explore new ways to work together. Hear from thought leaders who will stretch your thinking. Make valuable new connections across sectors. Be inspired to create positive change by thinking differently about how to lead, collaborate, innovate, and more.

Thank you to the community sponsors that help make this event possible.
