CBE students participate in hands-on career and technology challenge

For Immediate Release

CALGARY — Media are invited to join students and staff at Jack James High School as 144 junior/middle school students from 11 CBE schools participate in a Career and Technology Foundations (CTF) Showcase.

Students engage in a challenge in an area of passion, with the support and feedback of more than 20 Master Skill high school students and numerous volunteers from post-secondary vocational programs and industry. The hands-on, interactive challenge events allow students to demonstrate and nurture career skills in areas like robotics, photography, videography, baking, meal preparation, construction, leadership and fashion.
